

Family involvement and participation

Families are encouraged to participate in the program.
This may look different for each family.

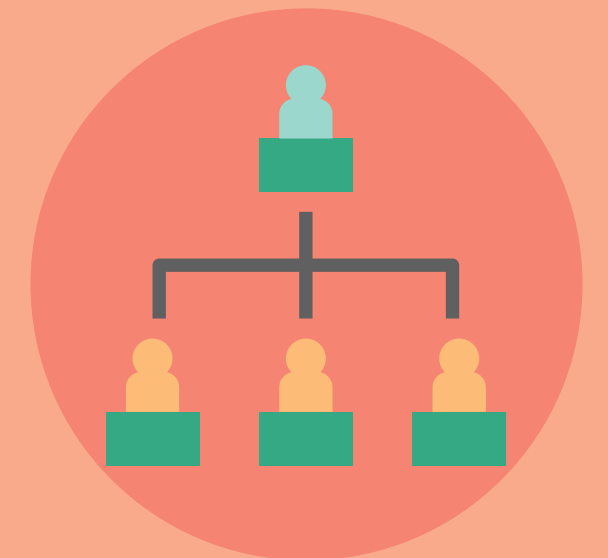

Contributing to the program – offering feedback and comments.

Parent helpers
(must have a volunteer working with children check).

Community events and fundraisers.

Parent advisory committee to assist with fundraising and social activities.